TOMS RIVER - Childers Sotheby's International Realty hosted its 5th Annual Jersey Shore Tennis Open Tournament at the Toms River Country Club on July 24th, raising $3,500 for Dottie's House, a long-term transitional housing facility for women and children who have survived domestic violence.

The tennis tournament was a great success thanks to the generosity of Lee Childers, owner of Childers Sotheby's International Realty, his staff from all five offices located in Point Pleasant Beach, Bay Head, Normandy Beach, Lavallette/Ortley Beach, and Seaside Park, and Adrienne Ballingall, Tennis and Membership Director of Toms River Country Club.

"We are grateful that Lee Childers has continued to raise awareness of domestic violence through this annual event," said Carol Wolfe, Dottie's House Founder and Executive Director. "The funds raised will directly benefit the programs provided to the women and children at Dottie's House as they continue on their journey towards emotional and financial independence and a life free from violence."

Dottie's House would like to thank the players and all of our supporters and donors, especially the Lunch Sponsors, Chambers Bridge Residence and Weshnak Family Foundation, and all of the Court Sponsors: Aquatecture Associates Incorporated, Briarmill Pharmacy, Childers Sotheby's International Realty, Homes & Land Magazine, Homes Now, Inc., Joe Leone's, MetLife Home Loans, Rhine & Associates, Toms River Country Club, and John P. Wauters & Co., LLC.
